Las Princesas Usan Botas de Montana? Carmela LaVigna Coyle

Every inquisitive little girl wonders what it is really like to be a genuine princess. In this book an energetic, spirited, and contemporary child has lots of important questions for her mom. Do princesses ride tricycles, climb trees, do chores, or have to eat the crusts of their bread? This heart-warming book offers a gentle lesson about self-acceptance.

About the Author

Carmela LaVigna Coyle, author of the popular Do Princess book series, is super pleased about her latest book for boys and girls alike. Her son Nick, with his fearless plush shark, Swimmy, was always creating something adventurous out of cardboard. She recalls, "And off we'd go, saving the world inside Nick's 'hi-tech' spaceships and submarines." Now, she's hoping children everywhere will discover that being a super hero may not be all that far-reaching after all. She lives in Denver, Colorado. Visit her website at www.carmelacoyle.com.

Mike Gordon illustrates the Robin Hill School series and has an extensive and varied background in illustration and design. He lives with his family in Santa Barbara, California.
